Prebivalci delijo najbolj epske fotografije finske arhitekture in oblikovanja.

 ourfinland Finnish architecture is world-renowned for the modern and Nordic look. It is a collaboration between function and tradition.

We asked our community to share their most epic photos of Finnish architecture and design. Once again, we were flooded with responses. 🙌

Without further ado, thank you:

- @helsinki-facades - Aeolus (1903) - Located in Katjanokka, this beautiful building is one of the 600 Jugend style buildings in Helsinki. It was designed by Selim A. Lindqvist. The name in greek mythology means the "keeper of the wind" - which is especially fitting for the windy location next to the sea.
- @huismandecopic - The Seinäjoki Library (2012) - This beautiful library by @jkmarchitects was designed to complement the renowned Finnish architect Alvar Aalto's Civic center next door.
- @avanloo.visuals - Paimio Sanatorium (1933) - Designed to be a tuberculosis sanatorium by Aino & Alvar Aalto, this masterpiece of modern architecture has received plenty of international recognition. Today, Paimio Sanatorium welcomes visitors on guided tours.
- @oodihelsinki - Oodi (2018) - The Helsinki Central Library was designed by ALA architects. The location in front of the Parliament House symbolises the relationship between the citizens and the government.
- @archinfo\_finland - Tikkurila Church (2021) - This OOEAAA designed building integrates a church within the housing block, including cafes and meeting rooms. The exterior of the church is also incredible, and creates a landmark in the neighbourhood of Tikkurila, Vantaa.

GUIDED TOUR: Family Funday

The unbridled imagination of children is the best gateway to art! At WIELS, specialised guides will take you and your family through fascinating exhibitions. As such, understanding contemporary art becomes a piece of cake. Even seasoned visitors are bound to discover something new. Before or after, you can grab a bite to eat in the cosy Café Kamilou. Check out the full range of tours on the website!

CONTEMPORARY DANCE: Brussels, dance!

Dark Red — Beyeler / RPS - Anne Teresa De Keersmaeker/Rosas

The Brussels dance scene will be buzzing with activity until the end of April. Brussels, dance! unites eighteen cultural institutions across linguistic borders, with dance and all its possible hybrid forms on the programme. Lise Bruyneel selected around forty photographs from Contredanse's photo archive for the occasion. Printed on giant canvases, they dance in the wind, hung up high in various Brussels streets. A poetic interlude which will make you hop spontaneously.

Hindsbo's tips for cultural experiences in Oslo

Culture by the Oslofjord: Many of Oslo's most exciting cultural attractions can be found along the harbour promenade, a five-kilometre stretch that runs from Filipstad to Sørenga. A few highlights to explore are the MUNCH, the modern art museum Astrup Fearnley, Oslo City Hall, Oslo Opera House, and the main library Deichman Bjørvika. Don't forget the National Museum that opened in 2022!

Pit stop: Enjoy a tasty and reasonably priced meal in the Vippra food hall, just by the fjord.

Lido and sculptures: If you need to cool off when you arrive at Sørenga, you can go for a dip in the sea. For more art, the Ekebergparken sculpture park is just up the hill. This is a wonderful recreational area with a good mix of natural and cultural experiences.

MUNCH: The new MUNCH is one of the world's largest museums devoted to a single artist! The museum exhibits Munch's paintings, drawings, woodcuts, and photographs. It has 42,000 museum pieces and 11 exhibition halls, and it also has a restaurant, café, bar, shop, concert venues and a cinema.

The National Museum: In June 2022, a revamped National Museum opened its doors to exhibition areas that cover a total of 10,000 square metres in 90 rooms. Dive into art, design, and architectural goodies from the classical age up to our time. Be sure to check out Lyshallen, a brand new showroom with a seven-metre-high ceiling. The museum also has a roof terrace, where visitors can get a drink or something to eat while they enjoy a grand view of Oslo City Hall, Akershus Fortress, and the fjord.

The sound of music: Treat yourself to a performance at The Norwegian Opera and Ballet in Bjørvika. And remember that Oslo has a highly regarded philharmonic orchestra. Their magnificent concerts are internationally renowned and definitely worth a listen.

Kuratorji vabijo v galerije.

The image shows an Instagram post from the account 'vienna'. On the left is a video frame showing a woman with short blonde hair, wearing a dark blazer and light-colored pants, standing in a gallery. The wall behind her has a repeating pattern of small portraits. A red text box at the bottom of the video frame says 'you to join me on a little tour of'. The right side of the post contains the following text:

#Meet Laura Amann, the visionary curator behind the exhibition "Darker, Lighter, Puffy, Flat" at @kunsthallewien!
❤️ Located in Vienna's charming Spittelberg area, Kunsthalle Wien is a hub of creativity and exploration. ✨

This thought-provoking exhibition challenges societal norms surrounding breasts and delves into themes of motherhood, queer families, and the objectification of women's bodies ♀

As we approach the #InternationalWomensDay, join us in honoring the diversity and resilience of women worldwide. 💪
