A GREEN CYCLING PARADISE IN THE HEART OF EUROPE

"Let the masses head out to the Alps. When it comes to mountain biking, Slovenia is Europe's best-kept secret. Brothers and sisters we have seen the light, we know that the country is a mountain biker's paradise, and we've been chomping at the bit to get back there ever since." – Singletrack Magazine, UK.

TEN REASONS TO VISIT SLOVENIA BY BIKE

It's green! A well-preserved natural environment, ruled over by mighty forests, fresh air and clean water. "Feel Green" is not just a gimmick, it's a feeling you experience when you come to Slovenia.

Diverse landscape – Slovenia is a meeting point of different geographical regions, and it is only right and proper for this cycling catalogue to align with the natural world. In terms of contours, climate and vegetation we merged the cycling destinations into five cycling regions, making it easier for you to choose your next holidays:

- THE ALPS
- ALPINE FOOTHILLS
- KARST UPLANDS AND PLATEAUS
- VINEYARD HILLS AND EASTERN PLAINS
- MEDITERRANEAN SLOVENIA

Slovenia is all within reach! This is a small but varied and in many respects rich country, whose diversity can be experienced even in a long weekend of cycling, but to really engage with the natural world and people here you will need a week or more on holiday. And then you'll want more!

The friendliness of the local people and the strong cycling culture – Cycling is deeply rooted in the Slovenian environment, in terms of tourism, sports and simply as a way of getting around. The locals will happily tell you about this or that great trail or help you get oriented, and in every town you will find local bikers that you can team up with to really discover the land.

Travelling by bike in Slovenia is full of positive surprises, and at the same time this is one of the safest countries in Europe.

Nature is accessible – When you turn off a Slovenian road into the forest, you will not be stopped by any "no trespassing" signs, you will be welcomed by the refreshing shade and free access to almost all the country's forests and uplands. There are some restrictions in Slovenia on wheeled vehicles in the natural environment, but they will not stop you having wonderful experiences.

In Slovenia you can bike in all seasons, with the cycling season in most places starting in April and ending in November, but in Istria you can bike all year given the Mediterranean influence.

Parts of Slovenia are still home to wild game animals, and you might see a sign saying "Caution, bears!" (it will actually read: "Pozor, območje medvedal"). But you have nothing to fear, the protected wild animals stay off the trails and are more afraid of you than you are of them, so it is almost impossible to encounter them.

Rich history and culture – In Slovenia you can explore ruins going back to Roman times, tour medieval castles or get to know some of the still very active master craftspeople.

10

Cycling almost has to end (or perhaps begin) with the "tastes" of Slovenia – in authentic local inns, with a glass of superlative Slovenian wine and one of the traditional dishes and desserts.

In Slovenia you will learn that the "perfect trail" is not just enjoying some awesome wilderness path or conquering a serpentine ascent, it is enjoying a ride that is woven into the environment, the people, the natural world, culture, cuisine and surprises around each bend.

DID YOU KNOW?

The oldest known wooden wheel and axle were discovered close to the capital city Ljubljana. It is some 5,200 years old, evidence that people "rode" around here back in pre-history.

BIKE HOTELS AND CAMPS

SLOVENIA BIKE HOTEL

Alongside the traditional star system, cyclist-friendly providers of accommodation and food (hotels, hostels, pensions, apartments and others) can acquire bicycle symbols indicating the extent and quality of what they offer to cyclists.

Basic services are indicated with one bicycle, and then range up to five bicycles, a designation reserved for tourism providers who live with cyclists and for whom it represents their main activity. Below we present the requirements for acquiring one or more bicycle signs, with each higher ranking offering more than the previous one.

ONE BIKE

The hotel provides information on what there is for cyclists in the local area, as well as a cycling info point, one night's accommodation without surcharge, a safe place for storing bikes, loan of basic tools, a space for drying cycling clothes and shoes and a breakfast enhanced with fruit and whole grains.

TWO BIKES

In addition to basic information about what is on offer for cyclists, the hotel has a cycling map of the area, marked local cycle routes, a cycling guide and the option of local bike rental. The premises offer internet access, special overnight packages for cyclists, bike and clothes washing facilities, transport for cyclists, bikes and gear and the option of packed lunches for bikers.

THREE BIKES

The hotel provides professional cycling advice for planning tours, with several cycling guides available, it provides GPS data for tours and guided cycling tours, and offers at least a 4-day programme of local cycling tours. Assistance in finding and booking accommodation in other destinations. The hotel offers individual bike locking, a servicing point and related services, mid-range bike rental, local roadside bike assistance and transport of bikes to local services, and in addition to cycling it offers alternative programmes.

FOUR BIKES

The hotel offers a 6-day programme of cycling tours and a number of cycling guides. It offers spare inner tubes of various dimensions for sale, free transport to service points and replacement bikes, mid-range bike rental, energy drinks, bars and snacks. Professional massage provided on request.

FIVE BIKES

Premises with five bikes must meet almost all the needs of cycling tourists, and in addition to the facilities provided, these needs are met by an employed cycling guide. In addition to everything mentioned earlier, these establishments must offer a minimum of 20 suggested individual bike tours, daily programmes of guided tours and a cycling proficiency programme. The bike shed has special protection with alarms and video surveillance, higher-quality bikes are rented out and the establishment offers its own transport of cyclists and bikes. The premises offer dinners suitable for cyclists and typical local and regional dishes. The facilities are further enhanced by a massage spot and sauna.

SLOVENIA BIKE CAMPS

Biker-friendly campsites provide a range of information on cycling excursions nearby and further afield, and they offer a 4-day cycling tour programme and one trained guide. They must also offer tools for servicing bikes, facilities for cleaning bikes and gear, safe bike storage, a space for drying clothes and shoes, transport of bikes and the option of renting five mid-range bikes. Campsites must also offer energy-rich food and drinks.

MOBILE APPLICATIONS FOR BIKERS

SLOVENIA TRAILS HIKING AND BIKING

The mobile guide is based on the Monolit topographic map, and does not require an internet connection.

CYCLING TOURS AND TRAILS

Total length	2,666 km
Number of all tours	90
Marked trails	18
Lowest and highest points	167–2,040 m above sea level

Under the high Julian Alps, on the edge Under the high Julian Alps, on the edge of Triglav National Park, lies a picturesque valley, and winding through it is the emerald River Soča. Nature, which is virtually unspoiled here, is richly adorned and harbours an abundance of treasures: Alpine peaks and green hills, crystal clear rivers, enchanting waterfalls, pools and gorges, therapeutic springs and mysterious caves. There are countless points along the way that stop you in your tracks and fill you with wonder.

The valley offers all kinds of outdoor activities, and it is especially simple and fun to explore this semi-hidden world by bike, while the more difficult terrain offers plenty of challenge for well-trained bikers. Mountain bikers can sweat and sunbathe on the steep slopes of the Julian Alps high above Bovec, Kobarid and Tolmin, enjoy the views from Kolovrat and explore the lovely Šentvid plateau, the remote villages above Baška grapa or the picturesque borderland area of Slavia Friulana. Road bikers should not miss the climb over Vršič (1,611 m), the highest road pass in Slovenia, while an even bigger challenge might be the climb up the highest road in Slovenia, which leads to the Mangart saddle (2,040 m). If you feel like an easier time on the pedals, try the routes along the Soča, Koritnica, Nadiža, Tolminka, Idrija and Bača river valleys.

Combine cycling with discovering and learning about the rich cultural and natural heritage of these areas, and the local remnants of the First World War offer a real trip into the rich history of the valley and its surroundings. We invite you to visit the source of the River Soča, Kozjak and Boka waterfalls, the Tolmin gorges and the big gorges of the Soča, Kluže fortress, Kobarid Museum and the Memorial Church of the Holy Spirit at Javorca. Along the way you should treat yourself to some famous Bovec cheese, a frika omelette with native Tolminc cheese and sweeten up with some Bovec kرافي dumplings and sweet Kobarid dumplings.

You can check out the area around Kranjska Gora at a great pace by bike. You can opt for an easy rhythm on the pedals or for more challenging excursions into the heart of the Alpine valleys.

To this end we have made up a map with marked cycling routes in the Upper Sava Valley, showing more than 200 km of signposted routes. The map also offers friendly pointers to special features worth visiting, and offers a thorough and probably the most pleasing way of getting to know this part of Slovenia. You can pick one up at any of the tourist information centres in Kranjska Gora, Mojstrana and Rateče. On the tri-country cycling route starting at the triborder with Austria and Italy you can also hop down to Bled through the Radovna Valley. And you can take off into the wilderness at many points from the maintained trails. Meanwhile the real bikers will not want to miss the climb to Slovenia's highest road pass, 1611 m high Vršič.

You can also bike tour around the Julian Alps. A circular cycling route leads from Kranjska Gora via Bled, Bohinj, Tolmin, Kobarid, Bovec and Vršič back to Kranjska Gora. The entire loop, which is 232 km long, can be done in five stages or five days. There is also a bike park in Kranjska Gora for anyone seeking adrenaline thrills.

The long-disappeared glacier cut deep into the Julian Alps and gave us Slovenia's biggest lake, and next to it magnificent mountains and Alpine meadows that seem tailor-made for all imaginable water and land sports in the natural environment, with cycling at the forefront. Tranquillity, a wonderful natural setting, traditional specialities and refreshment at each step – all this awaits you in Bohinj.

You can also experience Triglav National Park by bike, and there is no better starting point for this than Bohinj. The valley, dominated by its ever-clear and fresh lake, offers a wide choice of trails running from the lowlands all the way to the high mountains and pastures way above the lake. This area is etched with a full 420 km of cycling trails for all types of bikers, and the trails lead you to all the best-known attractions, both natural and cultural. You can of course rent a bike and gear at several locations, and you can set out to explore the Bohinj area accompanied by local guides. A day of cycling in Bohinj should also involve trying some delicious traditional dishes, and of course the obligatory jump into the lake. Given the wide variety of options and combinations of cycling and other activities, from hiking to all kinds of water sports on the lake and River Sava, you could spend a week or two in Bohinj without running out of fascinating places that will surprise you with their unique features.

Stretching out above Bohinj is the well-known Vogel ski centre, which now boasts a bike park (www.vogel.si), distinguished by its high altitude, and of course the views of the most majestic Julian peaks.

CYCLING TOURS AND TRAILS

Total length	around 330 km
Number of all tours	10
Marked trails	10
Lowest and highest points	500–1,180 m above sea level

Lake Bled is the icon of Slovenian tourism, while with its location close to Triglav National Park it is an ideal starting point for all kinds of cycling tours, taking you through the rich cultural and natural heritage of the location and its surroundings.

Blejski kot is an ideal spot for cycling, be it for older guests wanting to take it easy, families or dedicated recreational cyclists. The varying roads and trails between the villages in the area around Bled are ideal for short cycling excursions, while the dense network of forest roads at Jelovica, Pokljuka and Mežaklja will satisfy the most demanding mountain bikers. There are several agencies that rent out bikes in Bled, and you can also hire a guide.

CYCLING TOURS

The routes in the Bled area are laid out along little-used roads, and mainly on unpaved roads. Most famous of these routes is of course the trail around the lake, which at 6 km in length and minimal inclines is ideal for families with small children. Numerous routes lead from the lake, and one of the more attractive ones is the Radovna cycling trail running through the valley of the River Radovna and through Triglav National Park. It is 16 km long and runs along unpaved roads, and in addition to cycling you will be able to check in at numerous information points.

The Little Bled Loop tour takes you through the surroundings of Bled, and while it is 30 km long, you can stop at any point and return to Bled. The route sets off towards the canyon of the River Sava Dolinka and leads to the famous Vintgar gorge, through typical Gorenjska villages and along the River Sava Dolinka.

Bled is also an outstanding starting point for more challenging road and mountain tours, with routes leading all the way to Bohinj and the slopes of Triglav National Park, and by crossing what is here the very narrow Ljubljana basin you are quickly at the Karavanke foothills.

Camping Bled is situated in a peaceful valley on the western shores of Lake Bled. You can walk into the centre of Bled in less than half an hour along a trail around the lake, or you can get there by conventional or electric bike. In the summer season a special tourist train also runs around the lake.

Accommodation and food

Camping Bled is one of the highest category campsites, with state-of-the-art equipment. The campsite also offers glamping accommodation. The glamping cabins or forest villas stand on a raised natural terrace in a more remote part of the campsite, surrounded by greenery, but still right by Lake Bled. They are made of ecological unprocessed larch wood and covered in larch shingles, and in front of them is a wooden, wood-fired hot tub.

What we offer cyclists

In addition to everything offered by a specialist cycling camp, we also offer bikes for rent, including trail, mountain and even electric bikes. The bikes are fitted with GPS devices with preprogrammed cycling tours of varying degrees of difficulty.

Alternative programmes

Outdoor activities ranging from hiking, cycling, Segway tours of Bled and the surroundings, rafting, canyoning and horse riding to balloon flights.

CYCLING TOURS AND TRAILS

Total length	440 km
Number of all tours	11

Lowest and highest points	400–1,180 m above sea level

SYSTEM OF MARKED CYCLING TRAILS

Even the town and municipal crests of Radovljica depict a man with a bicycle, so it should be no surprise that Radovljica, positioned in the north-western part of the Ljubljana basin, on a terrace above the River Sava, between the Karavanke and Jelovica and just a stone's throw from the Julian Alps and Pokljuka, is a perfect starting point for cycling, where there is no doubt that everyone will find an excursion to suit their wishes and abilities.

Radovljica is a lively medieval town with a magnificent preserved old town centre. Each year it offers a rich programme of cultural and sporting events, and its green surroundings offer countless opportunities for sport and recreation.

A special feature is the network of cycling signposts, directing bikers on their routes to specific locations. The signposts include the distance and difficulty level, as well as interesting features in the area. You can plan your own route, and can make use of printed and digital maps. Radovljica is an ideal starting point for short and long bike excursions. Lake Bled is just half an hour away by bike, while Bohinj is more suited to an all-day ride. More robust bikers can pedal off to Kranjska Gora and then on to the highest road pass in Slovenia at Vršič. Shorter but no less attractive cycling routes run from Radovljica up to Jelovica, along the Karavanke foothills or through surrounding villages, which offer plenty of natural and cultural features of interest. The local roads have no heavy traffic, so are mostly ideal for family outings. There are also countless possibilities on the unpaved roads and hiking trails on the terraces above the River Sava and surrounding slopes. For serious mountain bikers we recommend hiring a local guide, who will tailor a tour to your wishes and show you some of the finest spots in the country.

The longest Slovenian mountain range, a 120 km long massif whose highest peak is the 2,236 m high Stol. Owing to its strategic position between western and south-eastern Europe, the Karavanke range is full of passes and mountain trails. These mountains have preserved their original wild environment, and the fine views and stunning gorges are simply enchanting. It is no surprise that the Karavanke range is a veritable magnet for mountain bikers.

The extensive network of ideal trails offers limitless combinations of tours between the mountains, on them, around them and in many places actually through them. There are more than 1,000 km of marked or map-indicated cycling tours of varying types and difficulty here. The mountain and forest trails and cart tracks seem custom-made for mountain biking, and you can also take trail bikes around the Karavanke. Traversing the Karavanke from Dravograd to the Tri-border (or vice versa) takes several days, and you can extend your route across by taking in various "local loops".

CYCLING TOURS AND TRAILS

Total length	more than 1,000 km
Number of all tours	20
Marked trails	14
Lowest and highest points	320–1400 m above sea level

With its dense network of existing roads with low traffic, forest roads and trails, and a growing network of cycling lanes and paths, the Koroška region offers limitless combinations of tours between mountains, up to the peaks, around or even through them, and an experience of the unique landscape between the Alps and the River Drava.

PECA MOUNTAIN BIKE PARK

The UNESCO Karavanke Geopark is home to a cross-border mountain bike park straddling Slovenia and Austria, which offers:

- A network of more than 1,000 km of marked or guidebook-described forest roads and cart tracks suitable for mountain biking;
- Underground biking in Mt. Peca, a unique experience of cycling through abandoned mine shafts;
- Cycling along the trails of the Jamnica Single Trail Park (www.mtbpark.com): enjoying a ride along the trails in the area of the specialist cycling hotel;
- Flow Trail Peca: ascent to the mountain by cable car or unpaved forest road and descent down a 12 km flow trail.

DRAVA CYCLING TRAIL

Drava Cycling Trail is regarded as one of the finest cycling trails in Europe in terms of natural beauty and cultural diversity. The trail runs from the source of the river Drava at Toblach/Dobbiaco in Italy, passes through Austria and into Slovenia, where its 160 km length is divided into five stages, and ends in neighbouring Croatia. The trail in the Slovenian section runs for the most part along less used local roads and to a smaller extent along maintained cycling trails and paths. Owing to the different types of road base and the tough climb between Podvelka and Lovrenc on Pohorje, the Koroška section of the trail is better suited to more experienced cyclists.

ŠTREKNA – CYCLING TRAIL THROUGH THE MISLINJA VALLEY

The cycling trail through the Mislinja Valley is one of the best equipped cycling trails in Slovenia in terms of infrastructure. The trail follows the route of an abandoned railway line and currently consists of a 24 km section passing through Otiški Vrh, Slovenj Gradec, Mislinja and Gornji Dolič. It is asphalted along its entire length and is separated from traffic. Its safety makes it particularly suitable for families with children and for older cyclists.

Unique in the world: UNDERGROUND BIKING – by bike under Mt. Peca

Mountain bikes are made for enjoying the mountains, but in Koroška you can also bike through a unique, 6 km long maintained bike route deep in the Earth. Equipped with headlamps, you will be guided through the mountain, along abandoned mine levels and galleries, and along the way you will discover the mysteries of the Peca underworld. The lower sections of the pit are flooded, and if you want another novel adventure you can explore the little underground lake by kayak.

GEOPARK KARAVANKE

Why are some areas better for cycling than others? You can find the answer in the Karavanke Geopark, where the wealth of geological formations and diversity of rock provide outstanding terrain for cycling. The natural environment of the Geopark, which extends around Mt. Peca, is noted for its exceptional biodiversity. The geological faults and overthrusts, as well as the numerous flash flood waters and rivers have helped shape the dynamic landscape and have created a diverse, picturesque panorama that will accompany you on all your cycling tours here.

JAMNICA SINGLE TRAIL PARK

Information

www.mtbpark.com

The Jamnica Single Trail Park is an unusual park, since it is in the trail bike park category.

Set in forests and pastures with magnificent views, the maintained trails are intended for safe enjoyment mainly with "all mountain" and Enduro bikes. Within the park you can opt for gentle flow trails or you can choose trails with difficult technical sections, thereby gaining experience for later exploits on longer tours. The trails are linked to each other by a special bike path built exclusively for an easier return to the summit.

The actual centre of the park is the Ekohotel Koroš cycling hotel in the hamlet of Jamnica. The fact that you can experience a MTB here in its best form is guaranteed by the mountainous surroundings, which are full of outstanding singletrails, and the neighbouring Mt Peca with its "longest flow trail in Europe". Given the sunny aspect of the park, its bike season starts in April and ends with the first snows in November.

- 9 all mountain & enduro trails
- 17 km marked single trails
- more than 30 km single trails on guided day tours

Drava Cycling Trail, which bears the international designation R1, is one of the finest cycling trails in Europe in terms of natural beauty and cultural diversity. You can follow the River Drava practically all the way from its source in Italy, via Austria into Slovenia and on to Ljegrat in Croatia, where the River Mura flows into the Drava. In Slovenia the trail is designated D-3 and takes you through Dravograd, Maribor, Ptuj and Ormož, all the way to the Slovenia-Croatia border at Središče ob Dravi. The trail runs along less used local roads and along maintained cycling trails and paths. Owing to the different types of road base and the tough climb to Lovrenc on Pohorje, this section of the trail is better suited to more experienced and prepared cyclists, and we recommend the use of trail or mountain bikes. In the Slovenian section the part between Maribor and Ptuj is a favourite among cyclists.

CYCLING TOURS AND TRAILS

The view by bike of Žalec and the Lower Savinja Valley will stick in your memory – countless fields of hops, the bitter plant that we also call green gold, lend the valley a special character; the River Savinja, which binds the valley, the soft chain of hills and uplands that line the valley and many points of interest will draw you to visit and take a look.

The interesting and appealing cyclist-friendly trails run past numerous points of special interest that are genuinely worth visiting. Here is Slovenia's Eco-museum of Hops and Brewing, the only such museum in the country. It takes you through the history of hop gardening and beer brewing, right up to the present day. You will encounter the culture of ancient Rome at the Roman necropolis in Šempeter in the Savinja Valley, where you can admire the imposing tombs made of Pohorje marble, richly decorated with mythological motifs. You are also in for a striking experience if you visit the Štajerska region's karstic gem – the Jama Pekel cave. You can enjoy a nice walk and rest while observing more than 170 bird species by the Ribnik Vrbje pond. And the town of Žalec also offers plenty of surprises! Visit us and discover for yourself!

The cyclist-friendly paths laid out here are 10 km or more long, some run entirely along flat land and are suitable for families, while others have a few inclines and high points from which the view of the green valley is even better. The largest number run along the River Savinja, and from there practically everyone can climb up the nearby hills. In this region there are also a lot of thematic trails, with various interpretive trails so you can learn even more about the points of interest.

We conclude this invitation to Žalec and the surrounding area with green gold – hops are the ingredient that gives beer its flavour. The glass of beer you drink at the Eco-museum of Hops and Brewing will remain a fond memory, as will cycling through the Lower Savinja Valley!

Central Štajerska is a destination of colourful experiences in the embrace of the lush green Pohorje forests, sun-drenched hill vineyards, a rich urban and rural heritage and a remarkable viticultural tradition, the symbol of which is the oldest vine in the world. It stands proud in all its finery on the embankment of the River Drava in Maribor, the centre of this region, which thanks to the world cup and cycling park is also the Central European epicentre of cycling. The destination offers outstanding conditions for mountain, road and trail biking, and it is also family-friendly.

- Head out to the Mariborsko Pohorje, where anyone with a surplus of adrenaline can enjoy the Pohorje Specialized Bike Park.
- Discover the natural gems of Pohorje such as the lakes of Črno Jezero and Lovrenška Jezera, and the Šumik virgin forest with its Mali and Veliki (Little and Big) Šum waterfalls.

- See if you are up for the 75 km long Pohorje cycling transversal route. Or you can let yourself be pampered in the middle of Pohorje in the boutique fairy-tale Ruševce Green Village, a unique example of ecological, sustainable and green tourism in Slovenia.
- Take the plunge with a family adventure and bike on down the Drava to the Drava Centre, where you can get into some fun activities on the river. You can also seek out the lovers' cove.
- Discover the countryside and its cuisine by electric bike. All this can be done with a KULEBIKE, the healthy, active, good and cool (KUL) option.
- Let yourself be enchanted in a romantic discovery of vineyard hill-sides, find the road shaped like a heart and visit the nearby local vintner. And the local roads that criss-cross the vineyard hills are a challenge for many a road biker.

Štajerska hospitality awaits you at every step!

The central part of Posavje covers the valley of the Sava River and the Krško-Brežice plain, which rises up in the south over low hills to the Gorjanci range, and in the north all the way to the Posavje hills which are covered in vineyards and orchards. You can choose between 50 different tours, which range from 16 to 60 km long and are part of a 1,500 km cycling network. Roaming by bike will lead you to plenty of natural and cultural sites and past some vineyards (or even through them), so tasting some fine wine is almost obligatory. You will also be treated to some traditional local dishes. It is also good to relax in the nearby spa after a cycling experience. The diverse landscape of the Bela Krajina region in SE Slovenia, bordered by the Gorjanci/Zumberak massif and the forested plateau of Kočevski Rog, offers excellent conditions for family cycling and for those who enjoy challenging themselves with more demanding routes. The region has 15 marked and maintained cycling routes covering a total length of 490 km and differing in terms of both terrain and difficulty.

The panoramic roads of the region's characteristic cultural landscape will lead you through picturesque villages and market towns, colourful fields, forests and hills planted with vineyards. Cyclists can also upload .gpx files to their own devices. The cycling and hiking paths along the Kolpa will take you from story to story, telling you of the unspoiled flora and fauna of the river, the heritage of local crafts and the folklore and gastronomic traditions.

CYCLING TOURS AND TRAILS

Total length	475 km
Number of all tours	5
Marked trails	10
Lowest and highest points	143–1,266 m above sea level

The extensive Kočevje forests conceal a wealth of beauty and mystery, and the dense trees hide numerous forest roads and trails that beg to be explored by bike. There are also many fine but little used roads that extend all the way to the borderland River Kolpa.

Kočevje's position between Goteniška and Kočevska Mala Gora seems made for cycling. The area around the town and lake is flat and ideal for family and recreational cycling, and trails lead in all directions through the forests and hills, while to the south everything is bounded by the canyon of the River Kolpa. Right by the river is one of the favourite routes for road bikers, and it has gained in value since the construction of the new road over the pass of Strma Reber, which is compared to the notorious Vršič pass.

Meanwhile Kočevje offers mountain and trail bike owners practically unlimited possibilities for rides, with more unpaved roads than you could ever possibly ride. You will certainly be drawn to Kočevska Reka and Gotenica, locations that were once closed to the public. And then there is the special thrill of riding around the perimeter of the Kočevski Rog virgin forest.

The Kočevje forests are a jewel of unspoiled nature and tranquillity, and provide a refuge for many wild animals, including bears, although it is hard to encounter them.

The Kočevje area also has abundant cool streams offering delightful refreshment, and alongside many of them there are outstanding cycling trails. Come relax on your bike in the authentic and majestic forests.

Cycling tours and trails

Total length	400 km
Number of all tours	14
Marked trails	5
Lowest and highest points	80–812 m above sea level

The little Brda hills, scattered above the emerald River Soča, just beg to be explored by bike – any day of the year. The winding roads will take you through numerous little villages, and along the way you will encounter a variety of fine local food and top quality products.

CYCLING TIPS

Hilly, diverse and green, and above all without any heavy traffic, this region offers more than 280 km of cycling pleasure on nine terraces. The trails, named after local Brda fruit, run over hilly terrain between numerous viewing points. The roads are best suited to trail and road bikes. The Sabotin hill offers exceptional views stretching to the highest mountains of Slovenia and down to the sea, and is also a favourite spot for mountain bikers. Five marked cycling trails for a special experience along the trails of the tempestuous First World War.

ADDITIONAL AMENITIES

Brda is a proper paradise for hikers and adrenaline-seekers. We can enhance the rich selection of active leisure pursuits in nature with an ecological note – the option of renting electric bikes and scooters.

As you wander around this area, be sure to check out:

- the viewing tower at Gonjače,
- Šmartno, an enchanting medieval walled village,
- Grad Dobrovo, a late Renaissance castle,
- Vila Vipolže, a late Renaissance villa, the only one of its kind in Slovenia,
- The Alpe Adria Trail, a cross-border hiking trail linking three countries,
- Krčnik and Kotline, natural stone bridge and pools,
- Sabotin Peace Park.

Ajdovščina is a pleasant town and the centre of the Vipava Valley. Even at first glance it is a paradise for cyclists. In the mild-climate of this valley you can cycle all year round, while the nearby hills and steep slopes offer an attractive variety of cycling challenges.

In the Vipava Valley, attractive cycling trails run through vineyard-covered hills and along the slopes of Čaven, Gora and Nanos. The varied terrain, the hospitality of the Primorska region's towns and villages and the many natural and cultural features of interest offer one new experience after another. Numerous cycling trails are available here for sport, recreation and easy riding, and each season offers an entirely different experience.

CYCLING ROUTES

The Vipava Valley is an ideal base for cycling tours of varying levels of difficulty, with 21 clearly described routes available. Local guides ensure that your route takes you to beautiful spots that you might otherwise miss. The diversity of the landscape, with lowland trails, steep climbs and descents, allows you to choose the route best suited to your wishes and physical endurance. The most experienced cyclists, recreationists and families with children will all find something to suit. The most attractive features include the famous road climb from Ajdovščina to Predmeja, mountain biking on the Nanos plateau, the route over the forested Trnovski Gozd plateau past unique natural phenomena such as the Great Ice Cave, and wandering through the vineyards in the picturesque hills above the Vipava.

ADDITIONAL ACTIVITIES

Bicycles and equipment are available for hire in Ajdovščina, where cyclists will also find experienced guides, bicycle servicing/maintenance and roadside assistance. In addition to cycling, the Vipava Valley offers paragliding, light aircraft flights, sports climbing, hiking and fishing.
